HISTORIC RESOURCE INVENTORY - BUILDINGS AND STRUCTURES

CONTINUATION SHEET: 21 Old Highway, Wilton, CT

Photograph of 21 Old Highway, view facing south.

Interrelationship of Building and Surroundings:

This house is located on the south side of Old Highway, roughly 550' northeast of Old Highway's intersection with Danbury Road (CT Rt. 7). The house is set back roughly 80' from Old Highway and stands on a hill partially hidden from view by a dense screen of trees. A gravel driveway leads from the road along the north side of the house to a one-car garage. The house is surrounded by a small lawn, while mature trees fill the remainder of the parcel.

Other Notable Features of Building or Site:

The house at 21 Old Highway is a one-and-a-half-story, wood-frame, Colonial Revival-style residence built ca. 1929. It has a side-gabled roof that extends in a Saltbox-style form along its east (rear) elevation. The house is oriented with its ridgeline set roughly north-south roughly perpendicular to the street. It is clad in wood shingle siding and has a central red brick ridgeline chimney. There are minimal overhangs of the asphalt-shingled roof at the eaves and rakes. The formal entry is centered within the three-bay façade where it is flanked by sidelights and a wood surround with a simple entablature. A secondary (but likely more used) entry is located on the north (side) elevation where it is sheltered by a one-story shed-roof porch with square supports. Fenestration throughout the house consists of six-over-six double-hung sash with molded wood trim.

Historical and Architectural Importance:

The land that the house was built on was owned by the Gregory family going back to the middle of the 19th century. Mary Gregory was the last of the family to have the property, which totaled 3.5 acres which extended all the way down to Route 7 and to St. Matthew's Cemetery. In 1922, Gregory sold that property to Harry Remsen, who then sold it 7 years later in 1929 to Edith Day. Day then sold 1.25 acres of that larger piece of property to Mary Ross Gannett in 1931. Based on a 1964 article from the Wilton Bulletin announcing Ross Gannett's move from the town, it appears she built the home sometime between her purchase of the property in March 1931 and the end of that same year. Trained as a journalist and writer, Ross Gannett was heavily involved in several different Wilton organizations, including the League of Women Voters. She wrote the League's weekly column in the Wilton Bulletin entitled "Everybody's Business". She lived in the house until 1964 when she sold it to Mary Wilson, who sold it only four years later to Thomas and Victoria Spater in 1968.
